

Tips for taking Multiple Choice Tests

1. Read the question all the way through.
2. Underline/highlight key words or phrases. Try to figure out what the question is asking.
3. Cross out "junk" words (those you don't need)
4. Rewrite the question in your own words.
5. Try to answer the question without looking at the answer options.
6. Underline/highlight key points in the answers.
7. Make yes or no questions out of the answers.
8. Eliminate answers you know are wrong.
9. If you get to a 50/50 chance with answers and they are complete sentences then choose the longest answer.
